SECTION B

Questions 51 to 55 carry 10 marks each.

- 51. Read the passage below carefully and answer the questions which follow in full sentences:

"Finalize whatever you are doing, "The time keeper has gone to ring the bell", Kinsa said. "The upper primary school is going meet the visitors in the school playground", she continued.

Tumaini Primary school was surrounded by two neighbouring districts .This made it to attract visitors on weekly basis. This time the visitors were not from Kampala but from the nearby worship places.

No sooner had Damu finished the Mathematics Homework corrections than the bell rang. Damu straight away ran to the venue and took up her seat next to Kinsa, her friend.

Mr.Haki, the Master of ceremonies called upon the P7 candidates to come infront. They were to lead in a song "This is the day the Lord has made". This was followed by an opening prayer led by Medi of Primary four.

Mr.Haki welcomed the Sheikh and Pastor, and everybody to the special meeting. He later welcomed Mrs.Rafiki, the headmistress who emphasized that the meeting was about abstinence.

The headmistress introduced Sheikh Ali and Pastor Penda to the pupils. After being applauded, the headmistress guided the pupils to be attentive. She reminded them to write important points which they would base on later when asking questions.

Being the first speaker, Sheikh Ali explained that abstinence simply meant not to have sex until marriage. Marriage has to be Holy matrimony or Nikah for adults who have completed studies at university. Abstinence was a necessary evil because it is what God fearing children should do. It is also the healthiest way to avoid teenage pregnancy and contracting Sexually Transmitted Infections. He concluded by encouraging the pupils to embrace sex abstinence so as to succeed in life.

Pastor Penda began by revealing that abstinence prevents pregnancy at 100% rate. It also prevents sexual trauma, and cervical cancer. She reminded the pupils to stop being deceived that it had any side effects.

She encouraged girls to stop putting on short, tight and transparent clothes. She added that peer pressure, indecent language, watching pornography, and going for discos weaken self-esteem to abstain.

The pastor concluded by discouraging bad music, indecent TV and Radio programmes because they increase peer pressure. This was after she had warned the pupils to avoid gifts and lifts from strangers, in addition to stop visiting others without the company of adults.

During the session for questions, what most pupils asked was related to experiences on abstinence. The sheikh and the pastor begged the headmistress to buy for the school abstinence inspiration books.

The pupils promised to practice what they had learnt about abstinence till marriage after completing studies.

A VISIT TO THE GRANDPARENTS

Last holyday, Nampeera ,Hassan and Asha visited their grandparents. They bordered a taxi from Kampala City and travelled via Jinja City to the village. When the driver riched Iganga town, he turned left and travelled towards Mbale City. They crossed the bridge at river Mpologoma, before turning left. After 15minutes they alighted at Kameme stage where their grandparents were already waiting for them. They were very happy to meat their grandparents after a year. After exchanging greatings, their grandmother drove in the Western direction of the main road. That is where there grandparents leave on the Western side of Lake Kyoga near Molu rock.
