

1). fastened (2). a (3). when (4). Butcher's (5). on (6). replies (7). courageously (8). better (9). sewn (10). played (11). second (12). Somalis (13). handful (14). hindrance (15). explosion (16). – post office (17). – world wide web (18). dictionary (19). mourners (20). famous

(21). obtuse, odour, opaque, order (22). qualify, quality, quicken, quickly (23). brothers-in-law (24). carpenters' furniture (25). some waitresses (26). Unfaithful (27). loose (28). heiress (29). I don't like eating raw materials. (30.) Did the pupils obey their teachers? (31). The way you present your ideas interests me. (32). The new bag is mine. (33). Odong used a lot of money, didn't he? (34). Much as game meat is tasty, many people don't like it. (35). How intelligent a man Mr. Kawalya is! (36). "I will do my best to prepare a nice meal for the guests," said Amina. (37). Immediately the driver stopped the bus, the passenger got out. (38). Mutesi should revise hard or else she will fail the examination. (39). The church is next to the market. (40). By the time Mrs. Kasule entered the bank, she had switched on his mobile phone. (41). If the driver had been careful, the accident wouldn't have happened. (42). All children need to learn about their rights and responsibilities. (43). Spanish is spoken by Spaniards whereas Lusoga is spoken by Basoga. (44). Not only does Mr. Munene make beds but also he makes tables. (45). Mina was made the chairperson during the debate despite the fact that she is shy. (46). The matron is wearing a long new navy blue dress. (47). What all animals need is comfort. (48). It will be sunny in the morning. (49). Hanifer is suffering from either covid- 19 or cancer. (50). The picture which saw in the newspaper was nice.

51

a). The passage is about the greatest invention. b). Antonio Meucci is believed to have invented the telephone first. c). The telephone was first in 1849. d). according to the passage, the passage, the first person to make a telephone was from Italy. e). drums and horns f). Two types of telephones are talked about in the passage. g). Social media platforms help a telephone user to communicate to various people at the same time. h). (i) innovation or creation (ii) many i). One can use smart phones to access social media.

52

a). The poem has four stanzas. b). Covid-19 is being referred to as a monster in the poem. c). All people have been affected by Covid-19 d). The women have become widows in the poem. e). The doctors can help in preventing Covid-19 by educating citizens about it. f). According to the poem, the police should ensure the citizens about it. g). Politicians can help to prevent Covid-19 by encouraging citizens to observe Covid-19 rules. h). We should stay home so as to keep safe according to the poem. i). EFFECTS OF COVID-19 j). buried

53

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
e	j	a	h	b	i	d	g	f	c

54

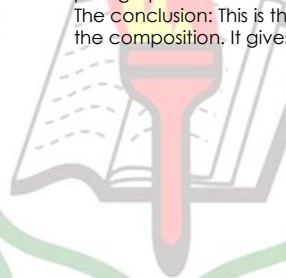

a). One can find this information on the Primary Seven notice board. b). The information above was for Winners Primary School. c). The information was used in the second term holiday of 2021. d). Six pupils are mentioned in the above information. e). Afiku Samantha and Tooto Pravin needed to perform better in class after the holidays. f). Ankunda Molly was very interested in live stock keeping. g). Ramadhan Ali needed manure and a hoe in order to grow tomatoes. h). Swimming was done mainly at the beach. i). Balintuma S had a lot of songs to sing. j). Ankunda Molly visited the swamp in order to get clay and papyrus needs.

55

COMPOSITION WRITING

When writing a free composition, you must include the key areas. They are:

- The title: This is written in capital letters. It should always capture the theme. Usually not very long but approximately six words.
- The introduction: This is intended to introduce the theme. It should always be eye catching or interesting.
- The body: This is the main composition. It has points put into paragraphs.
- The conclusion: This is the ending of the composition. It gives summary.

Engage

Inspire

Thrive

VOICE