Rugatsira was a pupil at Ruhumuro primary school. He used to wake up early because the school was a long way from his home. One day, the morning was cold and he did not want to go to school. He remained in bed. Later his mother arrived with packed roasted potatoes and forced him out of his bed to run to school.

After a short distance, he decided to hide in the nearby bush. He had hidden there for some few minutes when hunters with their dogs arrived. The dogs caught the smell of roasted potatoes and ran towards the bush where Rugatsira was hiding. Knowing that the dogs had caught the smell of a game, the hunters held their shining spears ready for the hunt. When the dogs were about to jump into the bush, Rugatsira shouted on top of his voice and the dogs got frightened. The hunters called their dogs and ran as fast as their legs could carry them. They feared that they had attacked the ghost of the forest.

After the disappearance of the hunters, Rugatsira got out of the bush and went to school shaking in fear. He went to the head teacher's office and told him the whole story.
