51. Read the passage below and answer in full sentences all the questions about it.

Mr. Opita's Garage

Mr. Opita is now eighty-five years of age. He has been repairing vehicles since he was 18 years old. He started repairing bicycles in his home village of Kipuyo and after five years, he moved into Mbale Town where he opened MMO garage along Mboya Road. In Mbale Town, he moved from repairing bicycles to repairing cars, vans and lorries. He bought a breakdown and employed four other mechanics to help him in his work.

Mr. Opita is now an old man. His back is weak and all his strength is gone. He can no longer do the heavy work involved in vehicle repair. He now sits on a chair under the tree in his garage and directs other mechanics on how best to repair the vehicles brought to their garage.

Sometimes Mr. Opita is called on phone to go and offer his services. In such times, vehicles break down on their way. Mr. Opita usually sends Mr. Ogum, the driver of the breakdown service and another mechanic. If the problem is big, the car is towed to the garage for repair. Where the problem involves loose nuts, punctured tyres or failing brake system, the vehicle is repaired at the site.
