SECTION B: 50 MARKS

5.1 Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

Quite often, our pet animals are good to us. They play with us and are very friendly. They give us company and they also make us happy. Some of these animals are cats, dogs, horses and donkeys. However, some of these animals can be dangerous. They can cause accidents to us and can also threaten our safety at home.

One boy had a pet dog which he liked so much. The dog knew him and it also liked him. The boy and the dog used to play together. He could even push the hand in the dog's mouth and it could not mind. Indeed, the boy and the dog were good friends.

One day, the boy left school and started playing with the dog. His father saw him but he did not warn him, after all, the boy and the dog were friendly to each other. Father entered the house and he started watching television while the boy continued playing with the dog. After some time, the boy became excited. He pulled the dog's tail softly and the dog didn't mind. He then increased the hardness and the dog felt pain. When the dog felt pain, it bit the boy and he started crying for help.

Father came out running and offered First Aid to the boy. He tied the bitten part with a piece of cloth. Afterwards, he took the boy to Dagala Hospital. He received proper treatment from the doctors.

After getting well, the boy vowed never to carelessly play with dogs. This was a very good lesson to the young boy as the proverb says, "once bitten, twice shy".
