SECTION B: 50 MARKS

51. Read the passage below carefully and in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

When the pupils arrived at Chakula Kitamu Hotel, they found the Manager, Mr. Kasirye Ali, waiting for them. Their class teacher, Mrs. Harriet Zinaabala had organized the trip for all the fifty pupils in primary six to the famous hotel. Mr. Kasirye shook hands with Mrs. Zinaabala.

“How are you, children?” Mr. Kasirye greeted them.

“We are fine. Thank you sir.” The pupils answered.

“Welcome to Chakula Kitamu Hotel. Please, feel at home. How many of you would like to work in a hotel?” Half of the pupils put up their hands. They looked quite eager to work in the hotel.

“Good, I will take you around and feel free to ask any question that you have. Please, follow me. This is the main restaurant and we have two dining rooms. This large dining room serves one hundred customers. The small one to my right serves thirty customers. Many customers come here to enjoy delicious meals. We serve breakfast in the morning and lunch is served from 12:30p.m to 2:30p.m. We are usually very busy during lunch time. Many customers also come in the evening for supper. Some go to the pub to enjoy a drink with friends.”

“What is a pub?” asked Sheila Musinguzi.

Mr. Kasirye smiled and said, “It is a bar. Only adults are allowed to go and drink there.”

“If you get many customers, how do you serve them all?” Logose asked. “That is a good question. We have waiters and waitresses who serve the customers. They set each table carefully. Mr. Kasirye told the children to look around. He then continued, “They arrange the spoons, the forks and even the knives. The customers are given a menu to help them choose what food they want to eat.

52. Read the poem carefully and answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

Look at all these guests I have received
Just because of the invitation cards I sent them
Now here they are
To attend my wedding ceremony

I hope their big attendance is due to friendship
The relationship I created through letters
The ones I sent by post and others by hand
How useful letters are!

I must say "letters forever"
If I were to invite them by phone
How much airtime would I use?
Of course it would be very costly.

Letters have always done it for me
Think of the application letter I wrote
The one that gave me this big job
An engineer for this big town.
