SECTION B

51. Read the story below and in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

"No, don't run!" shouted Kimalyo Bob to his sibling while on the other side of the road. Unfortunately these were his last words to his sister Kahala Bena at the busy junction. In no minute he was observing his brother lying on the tarmac. He couldn't believe his eyes when he saw the splashing of his sister's blood having been hit by a speeding cargo truck in a fatal accident.

Tears flowed past Kimalyo's cheeks endlessly when he tried to call her sister and got no response. Kahala was running fast to cross a busy road after her elder brother had left her on the opposite side. It is at this time that Kimalyo realized he had made a huge mistake. He almost lost his senses and became very shaky.

The journey to their aunt's place at Buhinda trading centre had turned out to be Kahala's fateful journey of no return. What a tragedy!

Sympathizers converged on the accident scene. These offered a helping hand. They called an ambulance, others went and informed the aunt at Buhinda. Medics at the hospital examined the victim and later broke the sad news to the family. Indeed the accident remained a dark-spot in Kimalyo mind. Whenever he crosses a busy road, he is extremely careful. That is why we should all be alert when we are crossing the road, or else we may be involved in accidents. "Before crossing the road, first look left, right then left again, if the road is clear you can cross," explained Kimalyo to Kahala's P.6 classmates the following week.
