Read the passage and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

The price for chickens a long time ago, all birds lived together as one family. The older birds would leave the young ones in the forest in the morning and move to look for food. The chickens were lazy and noisy.

One morning, while the chickens were out looking for food, the other birds called a meeting. They agreed to chase away the chickens. Peacock said that they should send away the chickens. The duck said, "I agree with Mr. peacock. It is the chickens making the forest noisy. They must go"

The other bird agreed to chase the chickens out of the forest too.

Mr. Eagle and three other strong birds, were sent to tell the chickens to leave the forest.

The poor chickens started their long journey out to the thick forest. They were very unhappy about the birds' decision.

They came across a river. Here, they felt good Mr. cock sat under a big tree. I am glad we are out of that cold forest. Mother chicken started scratching the ground to find food for the hungry chicks.

The chicken found a metallic boy. It had a rubber band around it. Inside it was something very shiny. As Mr. cock continued scratching the ground, the shiny objects stuck in one of his toes. The farmer saw the chickens. He chased them away.

The chickens ran to the King's garden and found the queen who was walking round her beautiful garden. When she saw the chickens, she could not believe that it was her golden ring that was stolen from palace

She ran to tell the King about the ring; The King said, "We must reward the chickens for their good work". He ordered his servants to build a special home for the chickens from then chickens live in people's homes.
