RUTH TRAVELS BACK HOME

Ruth is ten years old. She is in Primary five at Mazuri Primary School in Kampala. When the president of Uganda directed all schools to close for a month due to COVID-19 pandemic, Ruth's mother who stays in Mbarara planned to pick her from school at 6:00pm. She boarded Baby Coach bus, paid her fare to the conductor who later gave her a ticket. She took her seat and got her newspaper and started reading. Next to her, sat an elderly woman who was travelling to Kampala to visit her daughter. She had luggage that they put in the boot. As the bus was filled with passengers, the driver stated the engine and drove at a high speed. The old woman kept pleading to the driver to reduce the speed in vain. They reached their destination at 8:00pm and Ruth's mother jumped to a Boda Boda to Mazuri Primary School. Immediately Ruth saw her she ran and hugged her, took her to her class teacher who issued her with a gate pass. They left school and boarded a taxi. Ever since, they have stayed safe doing domestic chores, playing and learning with her siblings at home. They expect the president to allow schools in the country to reopen very soon.
