51. Read the passage below carefully and then answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Last month, the Primary Six pupils of Piiri Primary School held an educational trip. They visited Parana Bakery in Kekere. The lesson came after their lesson on baking in English taught by Mrs Kyampaire Violet.

The preparations began at school with a meeting in which the pupils were given instructions on how to behave and which activities they would do while at the bakery. Besides, the pupils were also asked to record some questions which they would ask.

After the one hour of the meeting, the pupils got on the school bus. On the way to the bakery, the children enjoyed stories that were being told by their teacher of English. The stories were mostly about the recipes that one must follow to bake tasty bread and buns.

The two- hour drive was so tiring that some pupils developed fatigue. Mr. Mbiire, the Manager of the bakery, was grateful to receive the smartly dressed pupils with their teacher. In the first place, the class was given soft drinks to quench their thirst.

The class was taken to different sections of the bakery, for instance, they were taken to the baking section where they were shown how ingredients are mixed to form dough. They also happened to see some electric ovens and baking tins. They were led to the slicing section to see how bread is cut into sizeable pieces.

Lastly, in the packing section, the pupils were able to see how bakery products are packed. They bought bread in the packing section. The price had been cut by
