Tumwine was born like any other child. Two days later, his mother was discharged with the healthy baby. At the age of one year, he looked like a child of three years of age.

His father, Mr. Kashoma was a businessman. While his wife was a teacher at Nyeikunama Primary school. During the school term, Tumwine needed someone to stay with. The parents took the trouble to find a person that would do this job to their wishes.

Kakabare, a twenty five year old woman, was their choice. She had trained at Kigezi Tourism Institute and got a certificate as a baby caretaker.

One Monday afternoon, Kakabare wasn't able to prepare the baby's mid day's meal at the usual time.

There was hardly any water in the house; she couldn't prepare the usual Irish potato meal. The little water available could be used for preparing a simple maize flour porridge. This would also take a shorter time so she put it on fire. By this time, the boy had begun crying.

Strangely enough, Tumwine fell asleep. This was chance for Kakabare to collect water from the well. She left the porridge on a slow burning stove.

During this season, water at the only well in Nyelkunama village was scarce. At this time of the day, there was a long line of people and thirsty livestock. Kakabare thought that since it was school time, the line would be shorter. She was wrong. When Tumwine woke up, he was hungrier than before. The tasty but hot porridge was on the stove. He crawled to help himself.

What followed was a very loud scream which attracted the neighbours, the boy's face was white with porridge. His legs and arms were all red.

By the time Kakabare came back, the baby had been given first Aid. She then rang her mistress who arrived shortly with the school ambulance. At Mparo Health Centre IV, the boy received treatment. The health worker said that the patient would soon get well. The mother was thanked for being responsible. She had bought a mobile phone for Kakabare. Two weeks later, Tumwine left the hospital.

Birds singing in the forst!

Waves are moving on River Nile,

And leaves are all shaking,

In the sun.

The Clock's hands go on turning,

And the school boys and girls of P.7 go on learning,

But I am crying, simply crying,

For the lesson to end.

When I am old, not strong,
When I am at school, no longer,
When lesson times and school days are over,
If there is singing in the forest,

If there are waves on the River-Nile,
If leaves are all there,
And, the sun is out,
I will greet all of them.
