SECTION B: 50 MARKS

51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

Mugisha was a bright boy during his primary school time. At the age of eight, he was in primary five. All the teachers saw a future doctor in him. His father also had high hopes in his son. So, he put up a coffee plantation. This was a big source of income that helped him meet his children's fees.

When Mugisha completed primary six, he scored a super first grade. He was promoted to primary seven. This was a pleasure to his parents and other relatives.

Two weeks after the term had begun, Mugisha received news from home. It was sad news. As his father was picking the coffee, he slipped and broke his leg. When Mugisha returned home, his father had already been taken to Mulwadde Hospital. The doctors said that the fracture would take a long time to heal. This meant that a lot of money was needed.

When the Primary Seven pupils were going to register for the Primary Leaving exam, Mugisha was confused. He could not hope to join the secondary school he wanted. So, he went to Ms Nasabu for advice.

She advised him not to give up. She told him to put his choice to Bakozi Technical School.

At the end of the year, he had passed in division one. Then he was admitted in the technical school. He chose to study carpentry. He was the best after a two - year course.

The principal of the school gave Mugisha all the tools he needed to start a workshop.

As we talk now, he is the richest man in Obure Sub - county. He pays school fees for all his young brothers and sisters.
