A CLASS DEBATE

Last Friday in the afternoon, when the Primary Six pupils were for an English lesson, their teacher of English, Mr. Rwothumio Desmond gave them a text to read. As they were busy reading, they discovered that the text was all about the Primary Six pupils of Kabojja Junior School holding a debate on the motion, Children who drop out of school should be arrested."

"This is an interesting motion!" exclaimed one of the pupils, "We need to debate on it, what do you think class?" All the class members made an applause in agreement with their fellow's suggestion. The teacher promised them that they would debate on the motion towards the end of the lesson.

When the time for the debate came, Kikoyo Michael was chosen as the Chairperson, Muhwezi Janice as the secretary and Nansamba Cynthia as the timekeeper. Four main speakers were selected to represent the proposition and opposition sides respectively.

Before the debate commenced, the chairperson introduced his cabinet and their roles. He then invited the main speakers to take up their seats. He then requested one of the speakers to open up the debate with a brief prayer.

Thereafter, he explained the debating procedures to both the speakers and the audience, he also encouraged the audience not to bore the house but they should be active in cheering the speakers and also participating in raising points like; point of order, point of inquiry, point of information, among others. He then explained the motion and declared the debate open.

Both sides argued strongly in support of their sides. At the end of the debate, the secretary declared the proposers as winners because they presented more points than the opposers. The teacher then thanked the pupils for accurately following all the debating procedures and actively participating in the debate.
