Instructions to candidates

Drawing from a human figure either full figure or a torso

ALTERNATIVE A

The study of the living person

FULL FIGURE

A bare footed model is made to wear a short sleeved shirt/ vest with a pair of trousers which is fastened with a rope at the waist and folded at the lower leg (cuff) while another leg at the upper leg (thigh).

He/She stands/poses with a walking stick which he/she holds with the right hand and placed between the legs whose right leg is brought forward.

The left hand touches in the waist revealing the fingers and the head tilted to the left.

Candidates should draw or paint the whole figure.

Alternative B

TORSO

A model dressed in a short sleeved T-shirt, sits on an office chair behind a table while facing the candidates in a full view

The model clenches both hands so that the chin rests onto the hands while the elbow rests on the table.

The model stares at the audience so that candidates make a study of the upper part of the model.
