5(a) To what extent was the Israelite demand for a King due to the Philistine threat?

(b).What factors may prompt people to demand for new leaders in their various organizations?

(a) To a smaller extent the Israelite demand for a King was due to the Philistine threat.

- ✓ The Philistines were traditional enemies of the Israelites.
- ✓ The Philistines were becoming militarily stronger and thus a threat to the Israelites

- ✓ The philistines had one time captured the covenant box and killed Eli's sons thus being a threat.

However the demand for a King was due to other factors.

- ✓ Samuel had become too old and was no longer effective.
- ✓ The sons of Samuel who had succeeded him were corrupt and only interested in making money.
- ✓ Samuel's sons were deciding cases dishonestly
- ✓ They want a King to be a mediator between them and God.
- ✓ It was also because the Israelites wanted to be like other nations.
- ✓ The Israelites wanted somebody they could see and look at ie a physical King.
- ✓ The Israelites wanted a military leader to lead them to war.
- ✓ They also wanted somebody who could lead them to prosperity.
- ✓ It was because the Israelites were constantly being attacked by their neighbours.
- ✓ The Israelites wanted somebody who could bring them together in unity.
- ✓ The Israelites were tired of the hereditary rule of Samuel and his sons.
- ✓ The people were also tired of being ruled by God
- ✓ Kings were giving immediate decisions and responses
- ✓ Neighbouring Nations were successful at war with Kings.
- ✓ Israel wanted to be a Nation of prominence and pride

- ✓ Solomon enslaved the Israelites.
- ✓ Solomon annoyed God when he broke the covenant laws.
- ✓ Solomon married foreign women/ pagan wives.
- ✓ He even allowed his pagan wives to continue worshipping their gods in the holy land of Israel.
- ✓ Solomon worshipped foreign gods thus practicing syncretism.
- ✓ Even when the Lord commanded Solomon not to worship other gods, Solomon did not listen or obey.
- ✓ The coming back of Jeroboam from Egypt also caused the division.
- ✓ It was the will of God
- ✓ Prophet Ahijah had prophesied the division.

REHOBAM 05 TO DAVID 05 OT SOLOMON 03 OT OTHERS 02 OT

(b) The once united Kingdom was divided into two Kingdoms came up ie Judah & Israel

- ✓ Enmity developed between Judah and Israel.
- ✓ Jeroboam stopped the northern Israelites from going to the south to Judah to worship God.
- ✓ The northern Kingdom became syncretic and Idolatrous
- ✓ Jeroboam built golden Idols in The north for the people to worship.
- ✓ The north turned away from God and began worshipping other gods.
- ✓ The north developed faster than the south because it controlled most of the trade routes.
- ✓ Jeroboam became the leader of the northern Kingdom.
- ✓ The two Kingdoms became weaker militarily and could easily be attacked by their neighbours.
- ✓ A new prophetic age came up as new prophets came up to warn people of their sins.
- ✓ Power struggles emerged in the north leading to the death of many Kings.
- ✓ It led the Israelites into pagan alliance
- ✓ It finally led to the fall of both Judah and Israel.
- ✓ Judah remained in the Samaria as the capital city.
- ✓ Un holy alliances were made between Israel and other nations.
- ✓ Judah and Israel lost their independence

10(a) Discuss the nature of the call and mission that Isaiah received

(b). What is the relevance of Isaiah's experience during his call to Christians in Uganda today?

(a) Isaiah received his call when he was in the temple ministering

- ✓ The call came to him in form of a vision.
- ✓ Isaiah saw the Lord seated on his throne high and exalted.
- ✓ He saw the Lord's robe fill the whole temple.
- ✓ The Lord was surrounded by heavenly creatures each of which had six wings.
- ✓ The creatures were singing praises to God.
- ✓ Isaiah saw this and realized that he was a sinner and the people were sinners.
- ✓ Isaiah realized his sinfulness in the presence of the holiness of God.
- ✓ One of the heavenly creatures flew to Isaiah with a burning coal and touched Isaiah's lips.
- ✓ This showed the purification and forgiveness offered to Isaiah.
- ✓ The Lord asked `` whom shall I send? And Isaiah said `` send me``.
- ✓ Isaiah was sent to go and speak on behalf of God.
- ✓ He was told that his task was going to be difficult.
- ✓ Isaiah asked for how long he would preach to difficult people.
- ✓ He was told to go on until judgment had befallen the land.
- ✓ He was also told that after judgment, there would be a remnant from which a new beginning would be made.

10 OT 03 SH

(b). Christians today should accept to be sent by God

- ✓ They should be obedient to God.
- ✓ They should worship God
- ✓ They should sing praises to God.
- ✓ They should minister to God the way Isaiah was doing before his call.
- ✓ They should accept their sins in their sinfulness.
- ✓ They should be repentant.

- ✓ They should depend on God in both good and bad times.
- ✓ They should accept cleansing from God however hard it is.
- ✓ They should ask from God things that they do not understand.
- ✓ They should preach messages of judgment on sinners if they refuse to change.
- ✓ They should continue doing God's work even when they meet challenges.
- ✓ They should also give people some hope by preaching messages of hope
- ✓ They should take up different roles in the ministry.

11(a) Discuss Ezekiel's teaching about the shepherds of Israel

(b) In what ways have religious leaders today failed to be shepherds of the people.

(a) Ezekiel said that the shepherds had failed to perform their duties as leaders.

- ✓ He said that the shepherds had never looked after the sheep/the people.
- ✓ He said that the leaders / shepherds were taking care of only themselves.
- ✓ He said that the shepherds were eating and drinking the best but never looked after the sheep.
- ✓ He said that the shepherds had not taken care of the weak ones or looked after the sick or even looked for those that were hurt.
- ✓ He said that the leaders had never tried to bring back those that had wandered off.
- ✓ Ezekiel said that the leaders had treated people in a cruel way.
- ✓ He said that the people had been scattered in exile and killed by foreigners but the shepherds never cared.
- ✓ He said that the people had been exiled but the leaders did little to help.
- ✓ He said that the leaders had not looked for the sheep or tried to find them.
- ✓ He said that the leaders were shedding innocent blood ie they had become murderers.
- ✓ He said that the shepherds were going to face judgment.
- ✓ The shepherds were going to lose their jobs and the people would be handed over to a good shepherd.

13 OT

(b) Some of the religious leaders are immoral and are involved in adultery.

- ✓ Some are murderers and thus are shedding innocent blood.
- ✓ Some are greedy and interested only in making money.
- ✓ Some have become proud and arrogant others misinterpret the scriptures and thus are misinforming the sheep.
- ✓ Some are liars.
- ✓ Others are showing poor examples to their flock.
- ✓ Others preach falsehoods
- ✓ Some are drunkards.
- ✓ Others are unrepentant even when they commit sin.
- ✓ Others do not accept that they are wrong.
- ✓ Some have rejected God's commands and God's teaching
- ✓ Some give false prophecies and false messages.
- ✓ Some are in league with the political leaders and encourage oppression of the people.
- ✓ Some encourage tribalism and nepotism

12(a) Analyse the problems that Job went through during his life time

(b).Discuss the lessons that Christians learn from Job's suffering.

(a) Job lost his donkeys to the sabeans

- ✓ He lost his sheep and the shepherds to lightening.
- ✓ Job lost his camels to the Chaldeans.
- ✓ All his children were killed when a storm blew down the house where they were having a feast and they all died.
- ✓ Job lost all his wealth including the 1000 heads of cattle.
- ✓ His wife told him to curse God and die ie he lost his wife's sympathy.
- ✓ Sores broke out all over Job's body and his body became a home for flies.
- ✓ Job felt a lot of itching and he would scratch his body with a piece of pottery.
- ✓ He experienced a lot of agony and suffering and yet he was righteous.

- ✓ Job did not understand why he was suffering thus he experienced Psychological torture .
- ✓ His friends increased to his suffering when they blamed Job for what he was going through.
- ✓ Job's friends said that Job must have sinned and were even forcing him to repent and yet he had committed no sin.
- ✓ His friends blamed Job's children for their death thus causing Job a lot of suffering.
- ✓ Job even went to the level of cursing the day that he was born.
- ✓ Job was abandoned by members of his own family, his friends and his relatives.
- ✓ Job's sheep and servants were stroke by the thunder.

12 OT

(b). Christians should endure suffering the way Job endured the suffering that he was going through.

- ✓ Christians should maintain their faithfulness despite the suffering.
- ✓ Christians should put their trust in God instead of trusting in wealth since wealth is temporary.
- ✓ Christians should have faith in God to help them when facing problems.
- ✓ Christians should be humble when dealing with God un like Job who questioned God about his suffering.
- ✓ Christians should visit others who are going through problems just like the friends of Job visited him when they heard about his problems.
- ✓ Christians should console others instead of blaming them in their suffering.
- ✓ Christians should rebuke bad advice just as Job rebuked the bad advice that his wife had given him.
- ✓ Christians should be patient in life unlike Job who lost patience and cursed the day that he was born
- ✓ Christians should have hope during suffering unlike Job who had almost lost hope of living.
- ✓ Christians should associate with friends in all circumstances
- ✓ Christians should depend on God for protection since he protected Job from Satan.
- ✓ Christian should accept suffering as part of life.
- ✓ They should give praise to God
- ✓ They should stand by their partners.
