

English Language

Senior four

Holiday work

March 2020 to April 2020

Rewrite the following sentences as instructed.

1. I wondered how old Anne was. (Use direct speech)
2. The rhinos in the National Park were hunted and killed for their horns, and they are now reduced to a small number. (Begin: Hunted...)
3. The students rejected all the decisions of the board. (Re-write using “decided”)
4. Let’s play (Complete with a question tag)
5. We obtain purple by mixing blue and red. (Rewrite in the passive voice)
6. If her parents return home very late, she will cancel her trip to Kisoro. (Begin: In the event)
7. When the news broke, the people rejoiced in the streets. (Rewrite using breaking in the place of broke and rejoice in the place of rejoiced)
8. I was sorry to have missed seeing you. (Use: regret...Do not use: regret that)
9. Perhaps it is because Peter is so proud that he often doesn’t get what he asks for. (Rewrite using: If...)
10. The car is very expensive. It needs to be driven carefully. (Join into one sentence using: ...so...)
11. The second child she delivered was less heavy than the first one. (Rewrite ending: ...as the first.)
12. John doesn’t like studying. John likes trading. (Combine the two sentences using: ...prefer...)
13. There was very little money left for his son’s wedding. (Re-write using: ...hardly...)
14. Opio was forced to wash all the clothes by the prefect. (Rewrite beginning: The prefect...)
15. His friends do not like the way he gives so much time to his pets. (Re-write using: ...object to...)
16. He still ran as fast as he could, knowing he couldn’t win the race. (Begin using: Although...)
17. He cannot come to me. I cannot go to him. (Combine into one sentence using: ...neither...nor...)
18. If you had not helped me. I would never have made it on time. (Begin: But for...)
19. The teacher told the class, ‘You have to complete the exercise before the next lesson.’ (Rewrite using reported speech.)
20. The car is very expensive. It needs to be driven carefully. (Join into one sentence using: ...so...)

21. She only became aware of the importance of her father when he had died. (Begin: If...)
22. I am certain you have made a mistake. (Begin: That...)
23. Mr. Kigozi beat the boy until he fainted. (Re-write in the passive voice.)
24. Muslims do not enter a mosque until they have removed their shoes. (Begin: Not...)
25. My mother goes to the village every two weeks. (Rewrite without using "every two weeks.")
26. Going by the bridge would be faster. Going by the ferry would be more fun. (Join the two sentences using: ...than...)
27. We enjoyed yesterday's party. (Rewrite using: ourselves)
28. You are late. (Rewrite and add a question tag.)
29. He said he would rather starve than steal. (Rewrite using: prefer)
30. No sooner had the passengers entered the train than it caught fire. (Begin: Hardly...)
31. He was weak. He could not walk. (Re-write using: ...too...)
32. I should have learnt French at school. (Begin: I wish...)
33. The new lodge was still being built. They had booked rooms in it for a month. (Join using: ...which...)
34. Mary said she could no longer bear her husband's drunken behavior. (Re-write using: "Put up" ...)
35. The pressure from her friends and the discouragement from her brother did not stop Jean from studying hard. (Begin: Neither...)
36. "Yakobo, you are late. What have you been doing?" asked Kabi. (Re-write as one sentence in reported speech)
37. The man was desperate to secure the job. The result was that he resorted to bribery. (Re-write as one sentence using "such")
38. He walked so many kilometers. He didn't reach the end of the road. (Begin: No matter...)
39. None of the players in this year's Rugby competitions was better than Owit. (Re-write using: ...best...)
40. Rewrite the following sentence removing all the repetitions. My father he said that if I returned back home promptly in time, he might probably have forgiven me.